

GIFTS OF NON-LIBRARY MATERIALS

The acceptance of unsolicited gifts of money or other non-library materials may be subject to approval by the Library Board of Trustees, at the discretion of the Director. Donors of these gifts may suggest uses limited to a specific purpose or location prior to acceptance, but any restrictions must be acknowledged in advance by a written agreement between the donor and the Library. Once accepted, the gifts become the property of the Library. Undesignated gifts will be used by the Library Board in any way it deems appropriate.

In order to ensure alignment with JMRL priorities, gifts that are solicited on behalf of the Library by staff, Friends of the Library, or fundraising organizations should be approved in advance by the Library Director.
